REGULATORY PRACTICES

1. The Parties recognize the importance of promoting regulatory quality and performance and good regulatory practices, including by:

   a) encouraging the use of regulatory impact assessments when developing major initiatives;

   b) establishing or maintaining procedures to promote periodic retrospective evaluation of measures of general interest; and

   c) exchanging information on their good regulatory practices.

2. The Parties shall endeavour to cooperate in regional and multilateral fora to promote good regulatory practices and transparency in respect of international trade and investment in areas covered by this agreement.

ARTICLE 5: DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

Chapter X (Dispute Settlement) shall not apply to this Chapter.

ARTICLE 6: RELATION TO OTHER CHAPTERS

The specific transparency commitments under this Agreement shall be governed by the established under its specific Chapters. In the event of any inconsistency between the principles established in this Chapter and the provisions included in another Chapter of this Agreement, the other Chapter shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

shall promptly provide information and respond to questions pertaining to any measure of general application or any proposal to adopt or amend any measure of general application with respect to any matter covered by Part [], that the requesting Party considers might affect the operation of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5: ADMINISTRATION OF MEASURES OF GENERAL APPLICATION

1. Each Party shall administer in an objective, impartial and reasonable manner all measures of general application with respect to any matter covered by Part [ ].

2. Each Party, in applying such measures to particular persons, goods or services of the other Party in specific cases, shall:

   a) endeavour to provide interested persons, that are directly affected by administrative proceedings, with reasonable notice, in accordance with its laws and regulations, when such proceedings are initiated, including a description of the nature of the proceedings, a statement of the legal authority under which the proceedings are initiated and a general description of any issues in controversy;

   b) afford such interested persons a reasonable opportunity to present facts and arguments in support of their positions prior to any final administrative decision, in so far as time, the nature of the proceedings and the public interest permit.

ARTICLE 6: REVIEW AND APPEAL

1. Each Party shall establish or maintain judicial, arbitral or administrative tribunals or procedures for the purpose of the prompt review and, where warranted, correction of an administrative decision with respect to any matter covered by Part []. Each Party shall ensure that its procedures for appeal or review are carried out in a non-discriminatory and impartial manner by tribunals that shall be impartial and independent of the authority entrusted with administrative enforcement and those responsible for such tribunals shall not have any substantial interest in the outcome of the matter.

2. Each Party shall ensure that the parties to the proceedings in paragraph 1 are provided with the right to:

(a) a reasonable opportunity to support or defend their respective positions; and

(b) a decision based on the evidence and submissions of record or, where required by its law, the record compiled by the administrative authority.

3. The decision in paragraph 2 shall, subject to appeal or further review as provided for in its law, be implemented by, and shall govern the practice of, the office or authority entrusted with administrative enforcement.

ARTICLE 7: REGULATORY QUALITY AND PERFORMANCE AND GOOD REGULATORY PRACTICES

1. The Parties recognise the principles of good regulatory practices and shall promote regulatory quality and performance, including by:

   (i) encouraging the use of regulatory impact assessments when developing major initiatives;

   (ii) establishing or maintaining procedures to promote periodic retrospective evaluation of measures of general interest.

2. The Parties shall endeavour to cooperate in regional and multilateral fora to promote good regulatory practices and transparency in respect of international trade and investment in areas covered by Part [ ].
